

Announcing an exciting leadership opportunity! The City of Boise invites applications for Planning and Development Services Director.

As PDS Director, you'll lead a talented department of more than 100 team members in four divisions that include Planning, Building, Housing and Community Development and Operations/Administration. This department has combined funds of $21 M budgeted in FY2019. The PDS Director will partner with the Mayor's Economic Development division to meld competing priorities into coherent and effective policies, as well as collaborate with a wide-range of constituency groups to achieve goals. This position is designated as At-Will.

If you have what it takes to influence and inspire change that drives our organization toward our vision of making Boise the most livable city in the country, we want to hear from you!

You must submit both your resume and cover letter to be considered for this executive opportunity.

First review date: November 5, 2018; Open Until Filled

If you are interested in more information or would like to apply please follow the link below.
<https://hr.cityofboise.org/planning-and-development-services-director/>